

THE GAZETTE,

FOUNDED IN 1857 THURSDAY BY J. C. HABERMACHER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One year, postpaid $1.00

Entered at the Shiner, Texas Post office as second-class matter.

BRYAN is giving Taft the time of his life.

BRYAN and Taft are both confident of election. We shall see what we shall see.

THE Servians are spoiling for a fight, but unfortunately they lack the sinews of war.

THE GAZETTE publishes this week an interesting letter from a German voter. Be sure and read it.

CREDITORS of the House estate at Houston should be on the alert as October 17th. is the last day on which claims can be filed.

ONE of the most apt sayings of President Roosevelt is the following: "The only man who never makes a mistake is the man who never does anything."

THE Paris press accuses Kaiser William of starting the trouble in the Balkans. We are inclined to believe the Balkans started the trouble themselves.

ANDREW CARNEGIE, the principle owner of the steel trust, gave $20,000 to the Republican campaign fund. Andrew knows which side his bread is buttered on.

THE Democratic national campaign fund is now close to $250-000. Come up and pay your dollar and you will know that you helped to elect the next president.

THE newspaper business must be languishing. Several good newspaper properties of this section are offered for sale. The LaGrange Journal, Nixon News, Flanoria Argus and the Weimar Mercury are offered for sale.

Thanks to the patronage of a liberal public, the GAZETTE is still able to hold its own.

RUMORS have been put in circulation that W. E. Rabb, the nominee of the Democratic party for Representative from Lavaca County, is a prohibitionist. This report is evidently put in circulation by the Republicans to injure Mr. Rabb. The GAZETTE can state positively that this report is untrue, as Mr. Rabb has expressed himself as being opposed to State-wide prohibition.

"Shall the people rule?" This is the issue. Mr. Bryan relies upon the people of the country for his election; Mr. Taft depends upon the money of the corporations for his success.
"Choose ye this day whom you will serve."—Charleston, [S. C.] News Courier.

S. A. Carnes & Son extend a cordial invitation to one and all, large and small, to inspect their new quarters.
This firm are the leaders in the produce commission line, pay cash for what they get and are going to hang on to the "habit."—Yoakum Times.

The funeral of the 15-year-old son of Mr. Otto Koehler occurred this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the City cemetery. Deceased had been suffering with bowel complaint, and it is said his death was due to appendicitis. The family lived in the Morthalla locale. —Gonzales Inquirer.

—Mrs. Thos. M. Stoll, who organized a lodge of Pythian Sisters here last year, returned home Friday night.
While here she was the guest of Mrs.
D. A. Stoll.

—The grand jury will meet on Monday, October 19, and the petit jurors who have been summoned will appear here Tuesday, October 20, and jurors who have been summoned will be governed accordingly says Sheriff Noble.

(Received too late for last issue.)
We are having nice weather at present, which gives the farmers a chance to gather their crops.

Wm. Reuel and family spent Saturday in Hallettsville shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wunderlich, Sr., and Otto Miller and wife spent a few days the past week in San Antonio at the fair.
Also Fred Hillen and wife returned from there last week.

Ferdinand Morgenroth of Victoria Co., is here assisting others in moving his mother's house to Henry Morgenroth's, Jr., house.

Ferdinand and Emil Kuehne of Austin spent last week here, and at Hallettsville with relatives.

Our school started today with Mrs.
Bertina Earlmann as teacher.

Mrs. Frank Swertlich is giving her residence a new coat of paint.

John Wustenbart has purchased him a brand new buggy. What does it mean, John? —Maduro.

Oct. 4.—Dear Editor and readers.
As I have a few minutes time I thought I would send a few items to the Gazette this week.

Miss Hattie Ehlers returned to Schulen-burg, after several weeks visit to her sister, Mrs. A. Huebner.

Mrs. A. Marek returned home from Cuero last week.

Eddie Havel of Moulton was on a visit here. Eddie, how did you enjoy yourself?

Mrs. Aug. Marek is visiting here from Cuero for a few weeks.

Misses Louise and Jannie Marek of Yoakum attended the Moulton picnic last week. Hope they had a fine time.
Today a large crowd was visiting at J.
Gloors.

Mr. Joe Marek and wife of Shiner was visiting today at Geo. Mosneyers.

Well as I am getting sleepy I will ring off for this time with best wishes to you all. —Honey.

Three Head Items.

(Received too late for last issue.) We have the pleasure to report a very pleasant and much enjoyed social gathering on Sunday, Oct. 4th., at the beautiful home of Mr. Anton Deharde, given in honor of Miss Ida Deharde's and Prof.
Otto Pisseler's birthday anniversaries.

A large number of friends, both young and old, were invited and it is needless to state that all enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent. Conversation, music and loud peels of laughter added much to the entertainment. Delicious refreshments, consisting of cakes and ice-cream were participated in by all and were greatly enjoyed. The celebrated San Antonio river water wasn't omitted either. In short, it was a day which will be ever remembered by all who were present. Our sincere wish is that our friends may live long and celebrate many many more such happy birthdays.

Ye scribe has been informed that Mr.
Stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Baumann and left them a new boss of the house hold. Of course it was very welcome, as this is the first one.
Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. John Nedbalek and grand-daughter, Helen Stuerer, visited at the home of Tom Mikeška, Sr., whose wife is on the sick list for some time. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Frank Peena and mother have been ill, but we are glad to report them O. K. again.

"June Bug," how did you enjoy picking cotton last week? I hope it did you a lot of good. Why don't you write?

The race for the Presidency is on in real earnest. Almost every town and city boasts of good "timber," but we are on the fence.

Some very pretty "hands" are held in the game of love, but the man always wins the prize—with the young ladies' consent of course.

"White Rose," I think we will meet at the park at Shiner tomorrow, instead of at the San Antonio Fair. —Fan.

Editor N. W. Mitchell Dead.

Yoakum, Tex., Oct. 11.—N. W. Mitchell, editor of the Yoakum Herald, died this afternoon after a brief illness of heart failure. He was taken ill Wednesday night and continued to grow worse until the end.

He leaves a wife, relatives in Waco and a brother in Austin. He was social correspondent for several Texas papers and was a leading business man.
